Calvin May

calvinkylemay@gmail.com ❖ (289) 387-4086 ❖ Ajax, ON

Objective

To secure an co-op internship in the Software Development Industry.

Education

Computer Programmer Analyst Advanced Diploma   September 2019 – Present

Durham College – Oshawa, Ontario

- Studying: Enterprise & Client-Side Web Development, OOP, Database Development, and Mainframe Development.
- Attained College Honour Roll in semesters 1, 2, and 3.

Relevant Skills

- Experienced in preventing malicious activity or users from impacting websites or databases using methods such as: user role-defined access, validation, and good coding practice.
- Exposure to methods of risk assessment as it relates to software development and an understanding of appropriate risk management documentation.
- Working knowledge of proven project management methodologies and best practices for maintaining a list of tasks and resources throughout a collaborative project.
- Proven ability to troubleshoot issues in several programming languages such as C#, C++, and SQL by taking a systemic and structured approach to problem solving.
- Strong ability to work within a team and independently, developed through experience in a production environment.
- Solid work ethic driven by a sense of satisfaction in my work and a desire to do well by my coworkers.

Work Experience

Donation Center Attendant / Production Team member   2016 – Present

Savers Inc – Ajax, Ontario

- Assisted several departments in achieving and exceeding daily processing quotas.
- Worked with several new employees, assisting in training and proper implementation of company policies and standards.
- Accurately weighed and logged incoming product ensuring correct and up-to-date information for stock-on-hand.
- Served customers by responding to inquiries and resolving complaints to ensure customer satisfaction.